

About prosource.it

Founding principles

At prosource.it there is an overriding focus on high quality delivery and a successful service or solution outcome:

- A "can do / what will it take?" attitude within our people and teams
- A commitment to operating an efficient low bureaucracy, low overhead business model
- A delivery approach which commits the company's energies to the target outcome as the primary objective
- We accept & embrace change and will offer flexibility - not conflict
- We understand that our customers' business requirements are dynamic and that maintaining delivery requires agility and pragmatism
- A goal to always 'do the right thing' – whether delivering a solution; interfacing with a customer; leading a team or keeping a delivery promise
